

Deep Is the Prayer

1, 5 Deep is the prayer in the si-lence of our hearts that we can - not 2 Deep is the love that we feel for you, O God, when we sit a - put in - to words, but we feel your grace flow - ing lone in your shade, and we con - tem - plate all the o - ver us, O Lord, and we know, dear God, you have heard.

pieces of our life and the man - y plac - es we have strayed.

3 Deep is the well in the des-ert of our life where we drink your cool, pre-cious love; an o - a - sis green where you cul-ti-vate our heart with your grace like man-na from a - bove.

4 Deep is the dark in the cor-ners of our life where our tears of lone-li-ness flow, but your light shines out and casts a-way the dark, and it leads wher - ev - er we may go!
